COMPLAINT

NOW COMES Plaintiff, LUCY PARSONS LABS, by its undersigned attorneys, LOEVY & LOEVY, and brings this suit to overturn Defendant CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT's refusal, in willful violation of the Illinois Freedom of Information Act, to respond to LPL's Freedom of Information Act requests for records related to facial recognition technology, license plate readers, financial reports and tactical response reports. In support of its Complaint, LPL states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Pursuant to the fundamental philosophy of the American constitutional form of government, it is the public policy of the State of Illinois that all persons are entitled to full and complete information regarding the affairs of government and the official acts and policies of those who represent them as public officials and public employees consistent with the terms of the Illinois Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"). 5 ILCS 140/1.

2. Restraints on access to information, to the extent permitted by FOIA, are limited exceptions to the principle that the people of this state have a right to full disclosure of information relating to the decisions, policies, procedures, rules, standards, and other aspects of government activity that affect the conduct of government and the lives of the people. 5 ILCS 140/1.

3. All public records of a public body are presumed to be open to inspection or copying. Any public body that asserts that a record is exempt from disclosure has the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that it is exempt. 5 ILCS 140/3.

4. Under FOIA Section 11(h), “except as to causes the court considers to be of greater importance, proceedings arising under [FOIA] shall take precedence on the docket over all other causes and be assigned for hearing and trial at the earliest practicable date and expedited in every way.”
